AUGUST 2026

IFORD | KINGSTON | PIDDINGHOE | RODMELL | SOUTHEASE

From the Ordinary to the Extraordinary

I am hoping that August will be a fun month; the school holidays provide a chance for family get-togethers; the sea is warmer than earlier in the year for a quick dip; with luck there will be some warm weather to enjoy pottering in the garden; and there are still village fêtes to look forward to, including Rodmell's on the 15th. They all offer opportunities to break away from mundane routines and everyday chores.

I hope you had the chance to enjoy the transformation of St John's, Piddinghoe, at the Flower Festival, where the cool calmness of the church became a riot of colour and scent. Flowers were displayed in the most ingenious ways—in French horns, tyres and teapots, for example!

Thinking of transformation and things out of the ordinary, this month the Church celebrates the Transfiguration of Jesus. It was a crucial event in His life. Jesus went up a mountain looking quite ordinary, but at the summit His appearance was completely changed. His face shone like the sun and His clothes became dazzlingly white. His divine glory was revealed in all its magnificence. This was far more than a physical transformation; it was an event of profound meaning. What an amazing experience it must have been for the disciples who were with Him—the glory of God revealing His presence and confirming Jesus' identity.

Just take a moment to imagine...

"And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light."

Matthew 17:2 (ESV)

I am not surprised that the disciples were terrified! Faced with such overwhelming glory, they caught a glimpse of something far beyond ordinary human experience. Yet, in that moment of awe and fear, they also received reassurance as they heard God's voice saying, "This is my beloved Son... listen to him."

The Transfiguration is a reminder to us that in the extraordinary moments of life, God invites us not simply to be amazed but to listen, to trust and to follow Christ. It also reminds us that, even in the ordinary moments of life, God's glory is never far away. We simply need to pause, look, and listen.

GENERAL NEWS

Rev'd Christopher Higgins

Congratulations to Curate, Rev'd Christopher Higgins who was ordained Deacon by Bishop Emma Ineson (Acting Bishop of London) at St Paul's Cathedral.

His title post is at St Thomas, Finsbury Park, London but by arrangement he will also assist our Rev'd Joe part-time here in the Iford Benefice. Swanborough resident, Chris, held his first service in our Benefice as an ordained minister at the Celtic Service at Rodmell on 17th July.

Chris says, 'it was a momentous and joyous day and I am looking forward to assisting Rev'd Joe here in the Iford Benefice as a part-time curate'.

The accident record demonstrates why long-term action is needed. Our goal remains to make the C7 a safer and calmer road for everyone who uses it.

Current Progress: The final set of scheme drawings, setting out the proposed works, including junction improvements and other safety measures has now been provided by our consultants. This will enable a move forward with the approvals process of East Sussex County Council's Highways Department.

The Safer C7 Project is now a registered charity which provides new opportunities to access funding and grants to support delivery of the project.

Government agrees expansion to Brighton & Hove boundary

Its been confirmed that Brighton & Hove, East Saltdean, Telscombe and Peacehaven will be brought together under a new local authority area from 1st April 2028.

Councillor Bella Sankey, Leader of Brighton & Hove City Council, said: "This is an important decision for residents that reflects the natural and practical connections between the special and unique communities in East Saltdean, Telscombe, Peacehaven and Brighton & Hove".

Councillor Zoe Nicholson, Leader of Lewes District Council, said: "I am bitterly disappointed that the government has chosen to make this decision, not least because of the total lack of any credible evidence for it and because, for the second time, has provided zero transparency about its latest public consultation. LDC will look at the possibility of a legal challenge, -all options are on the table'.

Raising Awareness and Vital Funds for MACS

Our United Benefice continued in its support of MACS Malawi at the 5th Sunday Service at Kingston Church back in June. It was a lovely Service for Trinity taken by Rev'd Joe with representatives from all five parishes. The collection raised funds for an Infant Baby Suction Apparatus for St Martin's Hospital, Malindi. Thanks to the wonderful generous parishioners, £358 was raised towards this vital bit of equipment needed for theatre which will help save the lives of new-born babies.

Morning Service Kingston Church - Sunday 19th July

The lay led morning worship was led by Jane Sallis who started off by apologising to those not interested or maybe feeling overwhelmed by the amount of football on the TV recently but wanted to align the football and other sports, institutions and workplaces with the need to harness TEAMS. This includes the local communities of both the village and the church .

Jane talked under the following themes:

- Nobody is perfect, but a team can be
- Different people bring different things
- We are the sum of out parts
- Every team needs direction
- Creating a sense of direction
- What part might each of us play -Perhaps perfection is not really the goal. Perhaps the goal is participation, shared purpose and the willingness to keep moving forward together. Because a community is not created by one perfect person. It is created by many different people, bringing what they can, trusting one another and following a shared sense of direction. Nobody is perfect but together, we can create a village that is caring, welcoming, resilient—and a truly great place to be.

Jane was very grateful to her husband reading the complex reading from Nehemiah - rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem and to Wendy Forbes playing the music throughout the service and to Adam Marsden, Baritone in the Glyndebourne Chorus, who treated us all to song by George Butterworth - '' Is My Team Ploughing?" and closed the service singing 'God Be in My Head and Understanding ...'

The next Morning Worship is Sunday 16th August 0945hrs

Iford & Swanborough Village Society Summer Show

After a relentless heatwave, the weather was just a little cooler for the Iford & Swanborough Village Society (ISVS) Summer Show and enabled a really good turnout of people.

There were great events; the Iford and Swanborough Tug-of-War for one and flowers, produce, cookery goods, arts, crafts and competitions for everyone to enjoy, not to mention the homemade cakes and teas. Outside, the tombola, the popular plant stall run by Susan Thompson, Pimms and beer tent, Aaron's burgers, children's games and competitions and so much more keeping everyone entertained for the day

It was lovely so see so many children enjoying being part of the village and taking part in everything from the dog show, to entering and winning in the show categories.

Such a difference from even just ten years ago where there were very few children in the 'hood!

Huge congratulations to the ISVS team, Sam Cox, Emma Garrett, Charlotte Boyd, Estelle Sherlock, Irene Marot, Nicky Axtell, Mike Hymas and the myriad of helpers to make the day go so well.

RODMELL WITH NORTHEASE

From Jenny Brown; Out and About in Rodmell

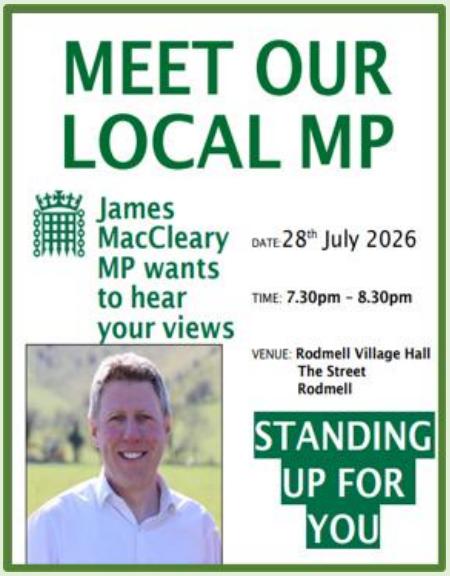

Welcome to Rev'd Christopher Higgins

On July 19th, our new curate, Rev'd Chris Higgins, took his first service in the benefice - the Celtic service in Rodmell.

He was welcomed by 30 parishioners, a cellist, a trombonist and the organ played by Michael Royalton Kisch. The picture is of the musicians as Chris 'moved about a lot'!!!

Refreshments were given afterwards and everyone enjoyed chatting outside in the sunshine and in the beautiful surroundings of the church. It was a lovely service with good singing and the backing of the musicians.

This lovely quilt will be raffled at the Summer Show. It has been made by The Rodmell Quilters as a thank you for the use of the village hall. .The traditional log cabin block has the centre represents the hearth of the home and the green colour represents nature's colour. The quilt measures approximately 85 x 85".

The Rodmell Quilters are a diverse group and have met one Sunday (10-2) a month since 2017. The group came together through a love of quilting and other stitching hobbies. Any Rodmell residents are welcome to join or pop in to see what is going on. Contact Carolyn Pentecost on 07502 170816 £5 per session, free advice and tea, coffee and a snack. First session is free.

EXCITING NEWS

After the Summer Show (see previous page), on the cricket pitch there will be RODMELL OPERA with the Sussex String quartet plus other musicians and a wonderful soprano singer.

This is the first time for what will be a lovely event. A flyer will be put through everyone's door in the village

DO NOT BIN THIS AS WHEN YOU PRODUCE IT AT THE GATE YOU AND YOUR FAMILY WILL GET THE SPECIAL ENTRY PRICE AS A RESIDENT OF £5.00 EACH !!!!!!

Everyone else will be charged £15.00.

It will be a very relaxed evening, bring your own picnic, wine and chairs. There may be Prosecco through Chris at the pub. The loos at the cricket pavilion will be used.

Come prepared for chilly evening and showers although we have ordered a fine Summer's evening.

There are two entry points; from the Croft via the lower five bar gate where you will pay, and the small gate at the bottom of Princess Gap into the field.

We are hoping this will become an annual event and a great fundraiser for the church.

SEE YOU THERE!

Spruced up Church and Churchyard

Michael Sword Daniels and Jerry Ashplant have made a lovely job of painting the walls under the windows in the church. It now looks clean and bright and almost "new".

Michael has also oiled the wooden doors which had become very bleached and dry. The oil used has restored them so well. The paths were cleared of weeds by him too.

The churchyard has been mown and the path up to the lychgate swept and tidied.

We should all be very proud of Rodmell Parish Church!

Welcome

To new neighbours, Thea and Marcus and their dog.

They'll soon meet us all whilst on their walks and hopefully will join in the fun of village life.

The next issue will be for September! Where has the Summer gone? Enjoy it while the sun shines and evenings stay lovely and light. Jenny

A Glorious Celebration at St John's Flower Festival

St. John's Church, Piddinghoe, was transformed into a breathtaking celebration of colour, creativity and community for this year's Flower Festival. Blessed with glorious sunshine throughout the day, visitors were welcomed into the beautiful church to enjoy an array of stunning floral displays that reflected both remarkable artistic talent and the wonderful spirit of our village.

The festival showcased an impressive variety of arrangements created by talented individuals and local organisations, each in their own unique style and imagination. Exhibitors included members of the LTC, the motor group, the Seaford Silver Band and the bell ringers, alongside individual contributors, all demonstrating their originality and creativity. The individual and often delightfully quirky nature of the exhibits made the festival especially memorable, giving it a character all of its own. Every display added something special, making the church a truly inspiring place to wander, admire and appreciate.

Sincere thanks to everyone who contributed their time, skill and imagination in creating these magnificent displays. It was particularly heartening to see so many members of the community involved, demonstrating just how much can be achieved when people come together with a shared purpose. Events like this simply would not happen without an enormous amount of work behind the scenes. Special thanks must go to Liz Ephgrave, whose dedication, organisation and enthusiasm were instrumental in bringing the festival to life. As Christine, our Bell Tower Captain, so aptly said, "It was an amazing achievement, and one that Nick and Liz must take much of the credit for because without their vision and hard work it wouldn't have happened." Thanks also to Gill, Marilyn and everyone else who helped plan, set up, welcome us, serve refreshments, clear away and ensure that the festival ran so smoothly. Your hard work was greatly appreciated by everyone who attended. The homemade cakes were another highlight of the day and received glowing praise from visitors. They provided the perfect accompaniment to a leisurely afternoon spent admiring the displays, chatting with friends and enjoying the beautiful surroundings in the glorious summer sunshine.

Perhaps the greatest success of all was not simply the beautiful exhibits or the funds raised, but the way the festival brought people together. As Christine observed, "Best of all, villagers came to the church and stayed to talk, which, apart from raising money, is what St. John's needs—a community that engages with it." That sense of community was evident throughout the day. Laughter, conversation and shared admiration for the creativity on display filled the church, making it a truly joyful occasion.

We all hope this fabulous community event will continue to flourish and grow in the years ahead, building on the tremendous success of this year's festival while retaining the warmth, imagination and community spirit that made it such an outstanding occasion. Congratulations and heartfelt thanks to everyone who exhibited, volunteered, baked, organised and supported this wonderful celebration of St. John's Church and the village of Piddinghoe.
